Coaching Staff Trains with BVB IA America

On Thursday, June 20th, Sheldon Daniel, BVB IA Washington Director of Coaching, and Dru Wright, BVB IA America Director of Soccer Development, visited our practices to mentor our coaching staff. The goal of the visit was to introduce the coaching philosophy of BVB International Academy (BVB IA) and evaluate our current coaching methods.

During the practice session, Sheldon and Dru actively engaged with the coaches and players, sharing insights and practical techniques that align with BVB's core pillars: Character, Quality, and Tradition. They demonstrated training methods designed to make practice sessions enjoyable and competitive, ensuring that players are both challenged and motivated. Sheldon and Dru had high praise for our coaching staff's training methods and their engagement with the players.

The visit was a testament to BVB IA's commitment to providing world-class training and development opportunities for our players and coaches. We look forward to their next visit later this summer/fall.
